WARM-UP

Discuss and answer the questions.

1. Do you like watching a fight between two strong people? Why or why not?
2. What do you know about gladiators?
In ancient Rome, there were accomplished, professional warriors who fought for public entertainment. They were known as gladiators. Their job was to fight each other in the arena to entertain the Roman people. They all had to endure hours of training so that they could win. Most gladiators were slaves, criminals, or prisoners of war. However, free men sometimes decided to become gladiators, especially if they had a lot of debt and needed to make money. These men were not very careful.

The first famous gladiator fight occurred in 264 BCE. Two brothers, Marcus and Decimus Brutus, organized three fights in honor of their father who had died. The fights were part of a ceremony to make sure that their father would be accompanied into the “next world” by strong, armed men. Romans believed that their gods liked seeing gladiator fights. When a gladiator was killed in a fight, he was considered a sacrifice for the gods. So, when a dead person was accompanied by a dead gladiator, the gods of the “next world” would be happy. They would give good treatment to the dead person. Moreover, gladiators who conquered their enemies might become celebrities.

Gladiator fights took place in amphitheaters. The largest built was the Colosseum in Rome. It held 50,000 people and had 80 entrances. During a gladiator show, there were usually several fights. Some fights were between a gladiator and a large animal, like a tiger or lion. There were also other types of fights, like fights between female archers or between a large group of dwarves and a smaller group of full-grown soldiers. Sometimes, regular people were forced to fight as gladiators as a punishment for their religious beliefs. It was important for gladiators to die with dignity, without begging for their life when they lost. Usually, the fascinated people in the audience got to vote about whether the losing gladiator should be killed or not.
