

Class: _____ Name: _____

Unit 5 Different Weather

* Listen and write.

A (TR 37)

- G Dad, what are you looking at?
M I'm looking at weather around the world.
G Oh, how's the weather here in Sydney?
M It's _____.
G Then, how's the weather in New York?
M It's _____ there.
G How's the weather in London?
M It's _____.
G How's the weather in Cairo?
M It's _____ there.
G Is it hot?
M It's not just _____. It's very hot!

B (TR 38)

- W Good morning, David!
B Morning, Mom. How's the _____ today?
W It's sunny. It looks beautiful outside.
B Really? It was so _____ and _____ yesterday!
W I know. Everyone _____ home.
B Mom, can I play soccer with my friends after school?
W Of course you can. Enjoy the _____!
B Thanks, Mom!

C (TR 39)

- G Hey, Simon. How do you feel today?
- B Hi, Taylor. I feel better, thanks. How was the _____ game yesterday?
- G Ugh. The weather wasn't _____.
- B Oh, no. How was it?
- G It was a little _____ and very _____. We had to stop the game.
- B That's too _____. How's the weather today?
- G It's a little _____. But it'll be sunny tomorrow!
- B Awesome. I'll be at school tomorrow. Let's play after lunch.
- G Sounds good.

D (TR 40)

- B My family went camping last weekend, and it was _____. On Saturday morning, we were really excited because the weather was nice. It was a _____ day. But in the afternoon, the sky _____ gray, and it started to _____. It was rainy all afternoon. Then, it started to _____. It was snowy all night. On Sunday morning, it was very cold. So we packed everything and came back home. It was a terrible camping trip.