

Class: _____ Name: _____

Unit 4 At the Park

* Listen and write.

A (TR 29)

- G Hey, Andy. What are you doing here?
B Oh, hi, Jane. I'm playing _____ with my baby brother. What about you?
G I'm having a _____ with my family.
B Where are your parents?
G My mom is playing _____ with my little sister. And my dad is over there. Can you see him?
B What's he doing now?
G He's _____ the dog. You know, we have a dog, Max.
B Oh, I see him. What's your brother doing now?
G He's _____ under a tree.
B Oh, there he is!

B (TR 30)

- M Sammy? Where are you? Are you at home right now?
G No, Dad. Jake and I are at the _____.
M Ah, I see. What are you doing now?
G I'm walking the dog. The _____ is really nice today.
M What about Jake? What's he doing now?
G He's _____ a _____. The weather is nice and windy.
M OK. You kids have fun at the park. But come home by 7. We'll have _____ then.
G Got it!

C (TR 31)

G Peter, what are you doing?

B Hi, May. I'm _____. This is a picture of my aunt, my cousins, and me at the park.

G I see. Who is this? What's she doing?

B It's my aunt. She's having a picnic.

G What about them? What are they doing?

B They're my cousins. They're _____.

G Where are you?

B I'm here, _____ for _____. It's my hobby.

G Cool. Draw me too, sleeping under a tree!

B OK. I'll do that.

D (TR 32)

G We live _____ from the park. My cat, Paris, likes to look out the window. She sees people at the park. They're _____ a good time. She sees little kids. They're _____ hide-and-seek. She sees a family. They're having a picnic by the pond. She sees a boy. He's sleeping _____ a tree. Now, Paris is falling asleep.... Suddenly, she jumps into my arms! I look out the window. It's a woman. She's walking her dog. Poor Paris. She's _____ of dogs.