- B1 Because I want to study abroad.
- M Great. What about you, Sandy?
- G2 I study English because I want to travel around the world.
- M Wonderful. Why do you study English, Peter?
- B2 Because I want to speak English well.
- M Wow, great! Everyone has different reasons for studying English. Now, are you ready to start today's lesson?

B (TR 70)

- B Hey, Bella. What are you doing?
- G Hi, Roy! I'm watching a movie.
- B Oh! It's in English. Do you understand it?
- G Not everything, but I'm trying.
- B Hey, this is how you study English, right?
- G Yes, it's my second time watching it. It helps my English a lot.
- B I think your English is already so good. Why do you want to study more?
- G Because I want to write stories in English. My dream is to make my own movies in the future.
- B That's amazing, Bella.

C (TR 71)

She said, "Because I like English. I want to speak English well. Then I can travel and meet new people from different countries. That would be amazing!"
