

Class: _____ Name: _____

Unit 5 Weather

* Listen and write.

A (TR 34)

- W Good morning, Justin.
- B Morning, Mom. I was just leaving now.
- W Don't _____ to take an umbrella with you.
- B Why? The weather looks fine. It's _____ and sunny.
- W The weather _____ says it's going to rain in the afternoon.
- B Really? That's not good. I was going to play _____ with my friends.
- W Oh. How about playing basketball at the _____?
- B I'll have to talk to my friends.
- W Also, it might get _____ later this afternoon, so take your _____ too.
- B OK, I will. Thanks, Mom.
- W OK, have fun with your friends!

B (TR 35)

- G Hey, Chris!
- B Hi, Beth.
- G I was just going to call you. What time do you _____ today?
- B Around 11 o'clock in the morning.
- G Great. And you're _____ here in Seattle until Sunday, right?

- B Yes, for three days. But Beth, I don't know what _____ to bring.
How's the _____ there?
- G Today, it's humid and foggy.
- B What about tomorrow, on Saturday?
- G It's going to be hot and humid. The high _____ will be 31°C. And there's a _____ of a shower.
- B And on Sunday?
- G I'm not sure about Sunday.
- B Then, I'll just bring my shorts, _____, and an umbrella.
- G Sounds good. Call me when you arrive.
- B Got it. See you soon.

C (TR 36)

- G Where would you like to _____ in the world?
- B I want to visit Greenland. It gets very snowy there. I love snow.
- G Cool! But it's _____ in Greenland. I prefer some place _____.
Like Indonesia, perhaps.
- B Yeah, with nice beaches. But, did you know it can get very _____ there?
- G Really? I just knew it was _____.
- B Yes. So it rains a lot. Where else?
- G What about Egypt? I've always wanted to go and see the desert.
- B It must be super hot and _____ there. But it does sound awesome.
- G What about our country? It's great too, don't you think?
- B You mean Chile? Yeah, it's all right. Although the weather's usually a bit
_____.

D (TR 37)

W I'm Janet Warner with today's weather _____. It's a hot and humid day in Manila, Philippines, with a high temperature of 33 _____. But, there's a chance that your usual shower may turn into a _____, so you might want to stay _____ in the afternoon. In Melbourne, Australia, it's warm and sunny with a beautiful temperature of 25 degrees. It'll be a great day to enjoy _____ activities. Finally, it may get a little _____ in Bogotá, Colombia, with temperatures around 18 degrees. There will be fog and a _____ of rain, so make sure to keep warm and bring your umbrellas.