

Class: _____ Name: _____

Unit 3 Amazing Animals

* Listen and write.

A (TR 18)

- B Hi, Nancy. What are you _____?
- G Hey, Rick. I'm reading about _____ in the Antarctic region, the South Pole.
- B Oh, that's interesting. I was just reading about animals in the other polar _____, the North Pole.
- G Cool. Which animals live in the North Pole?
- B Arctic foxes and _____. They both have thick, white _____ to keep warm.
- G I see. Did you know that there are no _____ animals in the South Pole?
- B Really? What animals live there then?
- G There are animals like emperor _____ and _____ seals.
- B I see. How do they _____?
- G They have _____ of fat and skin!

B (TR 19)

- W Hey, kids. How was your field _____ to the zoo?
- B It was great, Mom. I really liked the quokkas. They were _____ small and friendly kangaroos with happy _____.

- G Right. I even took _____ with them! Also, I learned they _____ in Australia.
- W Very nice. What _____ animals did you see?
- G I _____ tarantulas.
- B Ugh. The big, _____ spiders? Aren't they dangerous?
- G The zookeeper said that they can bite. But they are not _____.
- B Really?
- G Well, he said they won't _____ if you don't upset them. And their bites are similar to _____ stings.
- B Hmm. I still think they're scary.

C (TR 20)

- B What are you _____, Nicole?
- G Hi, Andy. It's a documentary about animals that _____ people.
- B I heard about a dog named Orion. He saved a girl from being _____ in heavy rain.
- G Wow. This pig named Lulu ran out to call for help when her _____ had a heart attack.
- B And there was this cat named Meskie. She _____ her owners _____ from their sleep because the house was on _____.
- G How intelligent, right?
- B Yes. They're so _____.
- G There was also Filippo, the _____.
- B What did he do?
- G When a boy _____ a boat, Filippo pushed him back on!

B These animals have such _____ hearts. They're amazing!

D (TR 21)

M Welcome, everyone. Today's _____ is on traveling animals. Let's look at some _____. These are reindeer. It's no wonder Santa _____ them to pull his sleigh. They travel _____ 4,000 km every year in the _____ of North America. This bird is called the Arctic tern. _____ its name, it doesn't only stay in the _____. It travels from pole to pole making _____ over 30,000 km every year. Lastly, _____ some insects travel. Monarch butterflies _____ between Mexico and the US and Canada, _____ about 5,000 km every year. Now, let's talk about _____ they make these journeys.