

Class: _____ Name: _____

Unit 10 Worries

* Listen and write.

A (TR 73)

- G Hey, Dan! How are you?
- B1 I'm not doing so good. I'm worried about the _____ test.
- B2 That's in two _____. Why don't you start studying today?
- B1 I've studied for a _____ week already. But I'm just terrible at math.
- G Hmm, in that _____, how about signing up for the school tutoring _____?
- B1 Is it helpful?
- G I've used it _____ last year. It's very helpful, especially with math.
- B1 Oh, I always _____ you were good at math, Judy. Maybe I'll _____ the program.
- G Sounds good.
- B1 What about you, Michael? What do you do when you _____ help with math?
- B2 I look things up on the _____. There are _____ that teach you how to solve difficult math problems. Maybe try that.
- B1 That sounds great too. Thanks for the _____, guys!

B (TR 74)

- M Hey, Mary. What brings you _____?
- G Hello, Mr. Jones. Can I _____ some advice on something?

M Sure. What is it?

G It's about giving presentations. I get so _____ when I speak in front of the _____. I have three _____ coming up this week, and I'm so worried.

M Don't worry, it's a _____ for many people.

G What should I do, Mr. Jones?

M It's all about preparation and _____. First, make sure you know your topic very well. It helps if you write _____ out.

G Yes, I plan to do that.

M Then practice it _____ and over! Practicing it in front of a _____ is a good idea.

G OK. I'll try that. Thank you, Mr. Jones.

M Good _____, Mary.

C (TR 75)

W Welcome to this group _____ session. Today, we'll _____ why we're here. Could you introduce yourselves and your _____ worries?

B1 Hi, my name is Brad. My biggest worry is fitting in at school.

W Could you _____ more, Brad?

B1 Well, I easily _____ arguments with my classmates. So, I often end up _____ by myself.

W OK, what about you, Dear?

G My name is Jenny. I worry _____ my looks.

W But you look beautiful, Jenny.

G Thank you, but I'm getting pimples and they're really _____ me _____.

W I see. Next, please?

B2 I'm Chris. I'm worried about my future. I don't have _____ I'm good at, or interested in. I don't know what I'll do in the _____.

W Thank you, all. Now, let's try to _____ these worries through our sessions.

D (TR 76)

W Welcome to our _____ on study tips! I'm sure many of you are here because you're _____ about your performance in school. Before we begin, did you know there are different _____ styles for each person? In fact, there are three different learning styles: _____, auditory, and interactive. Visual learners learn best when they see _____. So they understand and remember information best by sight; through _____ words, pictures, or charts. _____ learners learn best when they hear information. So, listening to _____ or having discussions are some good ways to learn. _____ learners learn best by _____ participating. For them, actually doing a science _____ is a better way to learn than reading a _____. Now, I'll introduce you to some study tips for each learning _____.