Not only humans can be architects. In this episode of Nature's Wonders, we'll introduce you to some amazing architects in the animal kingdom. Beavers are one of the most famous animal-architects in nature. They gather tree _____ and mud to build dams around water. A beaver dam can be 9 from a few meters to up to 100 meters long. Termites are also well-known animal-architects. They _____ their spit with the soil to make 10 towering nests on the ground. In Africa, some termite species make nests that reach up to 7 meters. Baya weavers are incredible bird-architects. While most birds can build nests, they're not as creatively made as baya weavers'. Baya weavers don't use the usual _____ and branches. Instead, they 11 weave their nests with long pieces of grass. When they're done, their nests look like hanging bags of grass.

Technology is all around us. Thanks to technology, we use different _____ every day that make our lives easier. How exactly does 12 technology help each one of us? I interviewed my friends to find out. This is Amanda. Her grandpa lives in Switzerland. So, she often makes video calls to both see and talk to him. Before there were video calls, Amanda had to fly all the way to Switzerland to see him. This is Tom. He uses an _____ 13 toothbrush. It helps him brush his teeth better. Before he used electric toothbrushes, he used to go to the dentist a lot. Now, he doesn't go as often.

And this is Kate. She loves exercising. She always wears her smartwatch when she exercises. She says the watch tells her about her overall health condition and how much she exercised that day.
