Did you know that the Happy Birthday song was protected by copyright law for a long time? Companies paid millions of dollars to use the song on TV shows and movies. Luckily, nobody needs to pay to use the song anymore. In 2016, it was decided that it was no one's _____. Like the Happy Birthday song, the famous novel, The Great Gatsby, is also free to use. Its copyright ended in 2020, 95 years after it was published in 1925. On the other hand, Michael Jackson's songs are still copyrighted because, in many countries, copyright lasts 50 to 70 years after the _____ death. However, this doesn't mean his songs will be free to use in 70 years or so. Copyright law changes all the time. So, when you're using someone else's work, always make sure you're using it in a lawful way.

Welcome to Green Botanical Garden. You may have heard of bugs eating plants. But have you ever heard of plants eating bugs? Meet carnivorous plants. Carnivorous plants are usually bright-colored and produce a nice smell to _____ bugs. Here's a video of some of them in action.

This is the pitcher plant. It looks like a pitcher and has a sweet smell. A fruit fly approaches the plant thinking it's food. But as it lands on the plant, it falls into the pitcher, which is like the plant's _____.
