A (TR 50)

- W Hello, welcome to Peter's Clothing.
- B Hi. I'm looking for holiday gifts for my parents.
- W Certainly. Do you have anything in mind?
- B I'm thinking of _____ like hats, scarves, or gloves.
- W OK, what do you think of these gloves and scarves? They're very popular and _____ right now.
- B They look nice. How much are the gloves?
- W They're originally 60 dollars, but with a 10% _____, they're down to 54 dollars.
- B All right. I'll get these gloves for my mom. What about these scarves?
- W They're originally 50 dollars, but only 45 dollars right now. Everything is 10% off until Sunday.
- B Hmm. The scarves are nice, but I think my dad already has a few scarves.
- W Then what about these socks? They're _____ socks at a great price.
- B They look good.
- W They come in a _____ of three pairs for 36 dollars.
- B OK. I'll get the socks for my dad then.

B (TR 51)

- B So, how much lemonade do you think we can _____ this Saturday?

- G Hmm. Maybe 30 cups if we _____ in our neighborhood and 50 cups if we go to the park.
- B Then, let's go to the park.
- G All right. We'll need about one lemon per cup. So, let's get ten bags of these _____. There are five to six lemons in each bag.
- B Perfect. They're 5 dollars a bag, so that's 50 dollars.
- G Now the sugar and _____.
- B One bag of sugar should be enough, which is 4 dollars.
- G And what about three bags of ice? They're 2 dollars a bag.
- B Good. Lastly, we need cups. Look, this one is 50 cups for 15 dollars.
- G OK, let's get it. And how _____ is all that?
- B That's 75 dollars in _____.
- G If we sell all 50 cups, 3 dollars _____, then we'll make 75 dollars in the end!

C (TR 52)

- G Hey, Thomas. Guess what? I've started getting an _____.
- B Hey, Alice. That's awesome. I wish I got an allowance too.
- G Yeah, it's pretty nice. But I kind of have to _____ my allowance.
- B What do you mean by that?
- G For example, if I clean our _____, I earn 10 dollars. And if I wash the car, I earn 15 dollars.
- B I see. What happens if you don't do any of that? Do you get _____?
- G No. I still get _____ 15 dollars a month.
- B That's nice. Then, what do you do with your allowance?
- G I use it to buy whatever I want. You know what the best part is?

B No, what is it?

G I always have money to buy ice cream when the ice cream truck comes around. I even get two – one for myself and one for my little sister!

D (TR 53)

M How can you use your money wisely? There are three ways to _____ your money: spend it, save it, or invest it. Spending is probably the easiest thing to do. Whether it's buying things for yourself or others, or even donating to charity, spending money brings joy. What is your favorite way to spend your money? Saving money is a simple but sure way to turn your pocket money into a bigger _____. Go to a bank near your house and open a _____. You'll soon feel the satisfaction of seeing your money grow. Lastly, you can invest. This could mean investing in _____, but don't forget to invest in yourself too. The money spent on your education and future is a valuable investment. Remember, your money matters. So, find the right _____ among spending, saving, and investing. It's the most important thing when managing money.
