A (TR 04)

- G Hey, Jim. What do you want to be when you grow up?
- B Hey, Sarah. Why the sudden question?
- G Well, we did a _____ on everyone's dream jobs today in class.
- B I see. I used to want to become an _____ and travel in space.
- G What about now?
- B Now, I want to be a _____.
- G A vet was one of the popular jobs in our class too. Why do you want to be a vet?
- B Well, I have a dog and he's five years old now. By the time I become an adult, he'll be old. So, I want to _____ a vet and take good care of him.
- G Aw, that's very sweet.
- B Thanks. How about you? What's your dream job?
- G Hmm. I did say _____ earlier. But I also want to become a dancer too.
- B Sure, it's not like we must _____ one right now.
- G Right. That's _____ I thought.

B (TR 05)

- B Hey, Cindy. Do you want to hear about my future plans?
- G What kind of future plans, Thomas?
- B You know I want to be a famous actor, right?
- G Yeah. You always talk about making it to Hollywood one day.
- B Right. So I started _____ acting classes this summer.
- G Wow. You're serious about it, huh?
- B Yes, I really mean it. By the time I _____ middle school, I want to start going to auditions.
- G Wow, that sounds _____. Is that why you've been in the school play for three years in a row?
- B Yes, even when I get small _____. Also, I'm planning to join art, music, and sports clubs starting next year.
- G You want to join all those clubs?
- B Yes. Acting _____ not just acting skills, but various experiences too, you see.
- G I guess that makes _____. Wow. Sounds like I should get your _____ already.

C (TR 06)

- W All right, kids. The results of your _____ tests are out.
- B1 What were those for, Mrs. White?
- W It was to explore your _____ options, Alex. Knowing your personalities and _____ helps you find a career that makes you happy, remember?
- B1 Right. Now I remember.
- W So, what do the results say?

- B1 It says I _____ for others and have self-control. The test suggested that I be a firefighter in the future. I'd like that.
- W Sounds awesome. What about you, Sophia?
- G It says I like to explore my surroundings and I'm _____ to solve problems.
- W OK, are you interested in any of the recommended jobs?
- G Yes. It recommended being a scientist. I think it would fit me well.
- B2 Mine says I'm _____ and have good communication skills. So, it suggested I be a _____ creator.
- W Well, what do you think, Tim?
- B2 Hmm, I'll have to think about it.
- W Very well.
