Unit 3 Museums

* Listen and write.

A (TR 18)

- G Hey, I thought this _____ trip to the museum was going to be boring. It's _____ than I expected.
- B It is. I was just on the 3rd floor where the _____ are.
- G Did you see all three _____ already? I've only finished the 1st floor.
- B No. I just started on the 3rd floor. I wanted to see the mummies first _____ it got _____ crowded.
- G Good idea. What else did you see there?
- B There were also Egyptian paintings about some Egyptian myths. They were pretty interesting. You should _____ them _____ later.
- G Cool. I definitely _____.
- B So, what did you see on the 1st floor?
- G There was an exhibit with _____ from all over the world. It had a special section _____ with their actual cocoons.
- B All right. Now let's see what's here on the 2nd floor.

B (TR 19)

- B Hey, Vivian. I _____ your dad works at Lakeside Museum.
- G Hey, Peter. Yes, he does. What's up?
- B I'm going there with my family this Saturday.

G _____ perfect timing! They're having a special exhibition on fish _____ . You can even see fish that can _____ water for years.

B Ooh. Sounds interesting.

G So, how many of you are going?

B Six. My grandparents, my parents, me, and my little sister.

G In that _____, you should see if you guys can _____ a _____.

B Oh. What kind of discount?

G Seniors over 65 and _____ 7 can get a 5% discount on their admission fee.

B That's good to _____. My sister's 5 years old.

G Nice. What about your grandparents?

B They're _____ in their fifties. But thanks for letting me know.

G Sure. Have fun on Saturday!

C (TR 20)

G What have you got there, Andy?

B Hey, Jen. It's a book about museums. I didn't know there were so many interesting museums _____ the world!

G Cool. What kind of museums are there?

B Well, _____, there's a museum of dog collars!

G Of dog collars? That's unique! Where is it?

B It's in the United Kingdom. You can see a _____ 130 different rare and historic _____.

- G Awesome. What _____ museums are there?
- B There's also a museum of gold in Columbia. It's _____ a famous tourist site.
- G Oh yeah, I've heard of the city of gold, El Dorado.
- B Right. There's an exhibit about that legend too.
- G Wow. I'd love to _____ the museum of gold.
- B _____, I'd like to visit the museum of chocolate.
- G There's a museum of chocolate?
- B Yes, in Switzerland. The book says it _____ has a 9-meter-tall chocolate fountain!

D (TR 21)

W Welcome to our special exhibition, Beyond Earth. Today, I'll take you on a _____ through the history of space exploration. First up is a video of a satellite launch. A satellite launch means sending a satellite up _____. This video, the launch of Sputnik 1, was recorded in 1957. It was the first successful, man-made satellite in history, _____ the beginning of the space age. Moving on, this is a picture of a very special man. His name was Yuri Gagarin. He was the _____ to travel to space in 1961. He circled around Earth once and _____ came back home. Now, take a look at this extraordinary spacesuit. It was _____ in 1969 by the famous Neil Armstrong. He was the first man to _____ the Moon in the Apollo 11 mission. _____!
