Basketball

I started playing basketball this year on the school team.

Our team practices three times a week.

At practice, we must run and jump quickly.

We learn how to pass, catch, and shoot the ball carefully. Our coach talks to us loudly during practice.

We play a game against another school once a week.

We have a game this Friday. Whether we win or lose, we must play nicely with the other team. This is called good sportsmanship.

I practice shooting the ball carefully a lot. My coach helps me with this.
