Puuuufffff!

“Whoa, what happened to you, Bobby?” asked Cathy the Clownfish. “Oh, sorry. I got scared. I thought a shark was coming,” said Bob the Blowfish to his friend.

Bob the Blowfish is a special kind of fish. Some people call it a blowfish. Others call it a puffer fish. Blowfish can quickly blow up like a balloon. This usually happens when other animals try to eat blowfish. They fill their stomachs with water and air. They want to look big. They want to protect themselves.

“Cathy, what are you doing?” asked Bob.

“I want to be like you. I’m trying to blow up myself,” said Cathy.

“But you can’t. You’re not a blowfish,” laughed Bob.
