Unit 16: Going to Zoos

■ Dictation

The Taviano family had an idea.
They would see a different zoo every week for one year.
They drove around the country.
They couldn't pay for hotels all the time.
Friends let them stay at their homes.
Newspapers found out about the family.
They wrote about the Tavianos.
Many zoos let the Tavianos in for free!
The family traveled thousands of kilometers.
The Tavianos' children had a great time.
They took pictures at each zoo.
Mrs. Taviano wrote about their trip online, too.
Friends could see where they were all year.
After the trip, Mrs. Taviano wrote a book.
The book is 52 Zoos in 52 Weeks.

Unit 18: A Crash in Roswell

■ Dictation

Roswell, New Mexico is a small town.
Less than 50,000 people live there.
However, Roswell is a famous place.
Aliens crashed there!
In 1947, a farmer found something in his field.
It looked like metal, but it was not.
Men from the army came and took the strange thing.
The farmer told his friends it was part of an alien's ship!
Not everyone believes the story.
That is OK.
The story still made Roswell famous.
Today, many people visit the town each year.
There is an alien museum in Roswell.
The city also holds a UFO Festival every summer.

Unit 19: The Robot Scientist

■ Dictation

A scientist was walking to his laboratory.
He saw a frog by the sidewalk.
The frog said, "Wait!
A magician made me a frog.
Kiss me.
I will change into a princess!"
The scientist picked up the frog.
Then he went to his laboratory.
There he put the frog in a glass tank.
Then the scientist started working.
He was making a robot to do house chores.
The frog asked, "What are you doing?
Why don't you kiss me to make me a princess?"
The scientist smiled.
He said, "I make robots.
I don't have time for a girlfriend.
But a talking frog is interesting."
